

Crittenden Record-Press

Vol 33

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY. June 8, 1911

NUMBER 50

THE CLODHOPPER AND THE BALD-HEADED MAN

A STIRRING TALE OF LOVE AND BUSINESS.

Written for the Record-Press by ROBERT C. HAYNES
Author of "This Funny World," "Dark Days and Bright," Etc.

X.

Green Falls In Love.

It was evening again, calm and clear and the light, Hemmed off from the earth by the "curtains of night," faded slowly but surely, and then by and by. The stars one by one boldly peeped from the sky. While the last rays were fading away, Imogene, Who sat pensively, listlessly watching the scene, Just as she had watched the same scene oft before, Heard a footstep without, then a knock at the door. "There's a visitor coming—who would have tho' so? Coming thus unannounced, I'll just wager 'tis Joe!" Then arising and crossing the room, Imogene. Softly opened the door—'Twas the hard-pounding Green!

"My! what a surprise! so tis you, Mr. Green, When I tho' it was Joe," smiled the fair Imogene, "Just come in, have a seat, sir, and tell me the news: You and I, you know, always had similar views." "That's a fact I am slow to forget, Imogene, And I trust they may coincide still," answered Green, For, to tell you the truth which should always be told— And I trust you'll not think me untimely and bold— I've been thinking today, and for days," went on Green— "Ao I pounded away on my writing machine, 'Twould be well, in fact best, as the Bible has said, To quit living alone, and in fact, to be wed.

"What a striking coincidence that, Mr. Green? And is it not strange, sir," went on Imogene, "That our views run like parallel lines, I might say; For I, too, have been thinking precisely that way.

To Be Continued.

Opera House, June 8.

Home Talent Entertainment

"SNAP SHOTS"

On Thursday night June 8th, the entertainment "Snap Shots" or "Fun in a photograph gallery" will be presented at the Marion Opera House by Marion's best Local Home Talent and under the direction of Miss Myrtle Mae Critchfield of Byron W. King's School of Expression of Pittsburgh, Pa., and under auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church.

In addition to the play about 100 children will be seen in tablou, Drills and choruses for which Miss Critchfield furnishes the costumes and the entertainment promises to equal if not exceed anything of its kind ever presented in Marion and is worthy of a good audience.

Letter From Sikeston, Mo.

Sikeston, Mo., May 27.—Mr. S. M. Jenkins, Dear Editor: If you will allow space in your valuable paper for my short letter, I am glad for Friday to roll around, getting the Press seems like a letter from home and am glad to read cousin J. B. McNeely's letters. It makes me feel happy to hear the good news from dear old Ky., the state I love so well.

Missouri is a fine state for corn, wheat and alfalfa, the alfalfa harvest is on and yielded a large crop. Corn and wheat is looking fine. Wages are fairly good and work is plentiful.

Sunday is no more than Monday with some people out here, though in our neighborhood the people respect the Sabbath and have regular Sunday School at Miner Switch every Sunday morning at 9:00 o'clock and prayer-meeting Sunday night.

Death of J. B. Champion Sr.

J. B. Champion Sr. (father of T. W. and J. B. Champion Jr. the Ardmore Okla., Lawyers) died at Hopkinsville Ky., last week and his remains were taken to the old Champion Cemetery near Salem for interment. His son, Thos. W. Champion came in to attend him but J. B. Jr. did not get here, having only reached Little Rock, Ark., when notified of his father's death. He returned home.

Rooster Guessing.

Morris & Hina's Rooster Guessing contest was a decided success and brought large crowds to their store. Wyatt Hunt was the successful guesser naming number of grains of corn the Rooster ate in 10 minutes exactly 287. Roy Harley guessed 286 G. Lawson 288. Mrs. Marshal Jenkins 281.

BUILDERS HARDWARE

A BUILDER HAS A GOOD REPUTATION IF HE USES GOOD BUILDERS HARDWARE IN THE HOUSES HE BUILDS. OUR BUILDERS HARDWARE HAS THE BEST REPUTATION BECAUSE THE BEST BUILDERS COME TO OUR STORE TO BUY THEIR SUPPLIES.

NOT ONLY DO WE KEEP COARSE GOODS FOR HEAVY BUILDING, BUT THE VERY FINEST MATERIALS FOR FINISHING THE INSIDES OF FINE HOUSES.

OLIVE & WALKER

PHONE 142.

NOTICE

To All Who Pooled Tobacco With The F. U. Tobacco Ass'n

I hereby notify you that I will be at the F. U. Tobacco Factory Saturday June 10th to pay the remainder due you for your tobacco. Res'tpt

Chas. W. Fox

See'y

Auto-mobile Party

Misses Kittie and Francis Gray, Leafa Wilborn, Ruby James and Della Barnes went to Salem Wednesday to meet Mrs. E. H. Merritt and spend the day at a spring near there, picnicking.

W. O. W. UNVEILING

The ceremonies advertised to take place at the cemetery Sunday afternoon were all carried out in full. Hon. D. H. Kinchloe of Madisonville delivered the address, Miss Addie Maynard recited in splendid style the poem "Why should the spirit of mortals be proud." Mrs. Kinchloe sang a solo. The monument erected to the memory of sovereign Tom Clifton & his wife and the W. O. W. Rosewood Camp was unveiled with fitting ceremonies. The Sturgis Band furnished the music and played many stirring airs during the march and at the cemetery.

Large delegations of sovereigns were here from neighboring camps.

PLANNING.

LET US PLAN WITH YOU, AS TO ROOM CHANGING AND NEW PIECES OF FURNITURE. COME IN, TALK IT OVER, LOOK AROUND, AND SEE WHAT YOU REALLY DO NEED. YOU'LL FIND THAT WE HAVE A SPLENDID STOCK OF NEW, DURABLE FURNITURE. WE ARE CAREFUL BUYERS, AND WE HAVE BEEN IN THE FURNITURE BUSINESS A GOOD MANY YEARS BUT AS YET DON'T DARE BUY FROM CATALOGUES.

May be if you get the import of this you'll realize how badly lost you'll be amid the maze of illustrations and vague descriptive matter of mail order houses. Besides there's not the real pleasure of buying when you buy away from home. You are always lead by promises of economy; and you'll find when you inspect the articles, that you do get cheapness but nothing else.

Remember we give gold stamps. Phone 53.

W. O. TUCKER, FUR. AND UNDERTAKING CO.

PROGRAM OF HOME TALENT SHOW TO BE AT OPERA HOUSE JUNE 8th, 1911.

Pianist	Miss Lucile Pope.
Military Chorus (In Costume)	Sixteen Young Ladies.
Soloist	Miss Nannie Rochester.
Mexican Chorus (In Costume)	Twenty Girls.
Soloist	Miss Mabel Yandell.
Mixed Quartet	Comic Opera.
Bass: Mr. Virgil Moore; Soprano: Mrs. J. W. Flynn; Tenor: Mr. J. L. Travis.	Forty Little Girls.
Japanese Chorus (In Costume)	Miss Vivian Yates.
Tableau of Fairies: Queen	Miss Florine and Morine Pierce.
Duet: (Selected)	Twenty Girls.
Indian Chorus (In Costume)	Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Travis.
Indian Duet

SNAP SHOTS CAST OF CHARACTERS

Mr. Mason (Photographer)	Prof. Christian.
Miss Brown (Retoucher)	Miss Iva Hicklin.
Bob (Office Boy)	Mr. Hershel Ramage.
Mr. Spratt	Mr. Claude Guess.
Clara Spratt	Miss Mary Finley.
Miss Modesty Lookhold (Old Maid)	Miss Mary Coffield.
Mrs. Swan Swanson and 15 Children	Miss Lena Holtsclaw.
Maggy and Jimmy (Street Waifs)	Miriam Pierce and Ivan Kemp.
Groom	Mr. Aubrey Cannan.
Bride	Miss Addie Maynard.
Mrs. Jude Jenkins	Miss Critchfield.
Mrs. Coaxwell	Miss Anna Lou Finley.
Blossom	Miss Bernice Sutherland.
Grandma Coaxwell	Mrs. J. W. Flynn.
Mrs. Dusenberry (Society Lady)	Miss Verna Pickens.
College Girls	Misses Susie Boston, Mattie Wilborn, Nannie Rochester, Velda Hicklin and Allie Wilborn.
Mr. Deafman	Mr. Jones Gill.
Carrie Deafman	Miss Alma Asher.
Mrs. Flanagan (Irish)	Miss Mary Lou Wilborn.
Mrs. O'Brien	Miss Lena Holtsclaw.
Pat. O'Brien (Mainmas Little Baby Boy, (4 yr. old))	Mr. C. B. Hina.

LEST WE FORGET.

The time is now at hand that we should begin preparations to give Hon. Ollie M. James the biggest vote for U. S. Senator in the primary to be held July 1st next that has ever been given to any one in this county. Every man, woman and child in Crittenden county would be glad to have the opportunity of casting a vote for him for U. S. Senator, because he is our Ollie, a son of old Crittenden, and one the whole state and nation, as well as our country may be proud of. But the honor of voting for him for this high office is limited this time, to the Democratic voters, as this is a democratic primary. We know that every democratic voter in the county, is for him and would like to see him receive the largest vote ever given to a candidate in this county and state, but some may forget the day. Let us not forget the day, let each one begin now to make his arrangements so that nothing will prevent his going to the election and voting. Let us not be over confident in the belief that he will win any way and that our votes are not necessary for him. In an election confidence is a good thing, but nothing counts like votes. We want him for our Senator, we want to show him that we honor him and we want him, we want to show the state that we are for him; then let us each, democratic voter in the county go to work to see that every other voter does not forget the day and that every one shall be on hand to vote for him. One vote may decide the election and that vote may be yours. How would a democratic voter of Crittenden county feel if he should be defeated by one vote, if that voter did not vote for him? If every one should feel that he is going to get the majority any way, and stay at home, the mere fact that we feel that way, would not do him any good. But aside from the necessity of voting for him, let us all show him, by voting for him, that old Crittenden never forgets her chosen sons, and always takes advantage of an opportunity of honoring them.

Aviation Meet, Evansville

Round trip rate $3.60 date of sale June 9th and 10th return June 11th. W. L. Venner.

Providence Enterprise Locals

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Nichols and little son Casner, returned home Monday morning after a visit to the family of J. F. Casner in Crittenden county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Orr spent Tuesday with the family of J. B. Ford in Crittenden county.

The wife and two children of Mr. Herbert Pollard who have been visiting relatives at Elkton, joined Mr. Pollard here yesterday.

Judge John W. Blue, County Attorney John Moore and John Eskew of Marion, motored to this city Thursday on business.

Press Ford, assistant cashier of the Union National Bank, has been visiting his parents in Crittenden county for several days.

Miss Nell Williams returned from a visit to her sister at Marion Monday and was accompanied home by Mrs. Gugenheim's little son.

Lamb-Walker.

Asa Walker and Miss Elvah Lamb of Sugar Grove section drove up to Rev. W. T. Oakley's residence Wednesday May 31st 1911 at 3 o'clock and were united in marriage by that eminent divine. They were accompanied by Mr. Jas. Walker, a brother of the groom and Roy Lamb brother of the bride, and his best girl but we did not learn her name, although she is a beauty.

The young people belong to the best family's in their neighborhood and are a fine couple who have the best wishes of every one.

Mrs. J. M. Roney and daughter, Mrs. E. H. McRae of Chicago are visiting at their old home, Salem, Ky.

A Treat For All
In The Sale Of Carnahan Bros & Dodge.

15 BIG DAYS

Beginning On Saturday
June 3rd, And Ending
Tuesday, June 20th.

Bigger, Better, Grander Than Ever Before.
Don't Fail To Attend.

Grasp the opportunity offered you in the sale of Carnahan Bros & Dodge's entire stock of clean, new merchandise going during the next fifteen days at the most startlingly low prices ever yet made. Prices speak louder than words so do yourself justice by attending this, the greatest of all sales.

Standard Calicoes Worth 6c Per yard. Now 4c.	50c Wool Goods 39c We have a splendid assort- ment of wool goods in any color, 1 yd wide 39c.	Hose. 25c Hose 19c. 15c Hose 11c. 10c Hose 7c.	Shirts. One lot of Shirts Regular $1.00 Value 75c Regular 50c Value 39c.
Remnant Calico While it Lasts Per yd. 3c.	25c Wool Goods 19c. Our 25c line will make nice Summer Skirts with but little cost, at 19c.	Handkerchiefs. 25c Handkerchiefs 19c. 15c Handkerchiefs 11c. 10c Handkerchiefs 8c. 5c Handkerchiefs 3c.	50c Work Shirts 35c.
6c Brown Domestic 5c Best Domestic Made 1 yd wide 5c.	15c Suitings 11c. A nice line of suitings in all colors. Will make good Wash Skirts, only 11c.	Ribbon. All Silk ribbon in any color and width. Per yd 10c.	Collars. One lot of Collars, Each 5c.
Bleach Domestic, Good Quality Bleach 5c Hope Bleach 7 1-2c	10c Suitings 8c. All Colors	50c Towels 39c. Both Hemmed and Fringe end Towels, 39c.	Ties. 50c Ties 39c. 25c Ties 18c.
Bleach Sheeting 27 1-2c 10-4 Pepperell Sheeting 24c 25c 9-4 Pepperell Sheeting 22 1-2c	Dress Ginghams 9c. Dress Ginghams in fancy plaids and checks, especially suited for children's and women's waists and house dresses. 10 and 12 1-2c Values, 9c.	50c Damask 39c. Heavy Grade Silver Damask. Table Damask 72 inches wide 50c Value 39c.	Suspenders. 25c Value 19c. 15c Values 10c.
Unbleached Sheeting 22 1-2c 9-4 Pepperell Sheeting 20c 4-4 Sheeting 10c.	10c Percales 9c. Red, Blue, Gray and Light.	A large lot of Lace. Per yd 2c.	Hats. A large lot of both wool and straw hats to be sold at a great reduction.
Shirtings. Shirtings in 6c Values 5c. 10 and 12 1-2 Shirtings 8 1-3	Collars 25c for Ladies 15c.	See our line of Carpets Druggets, Rugs, Matting, Oilcloth and Linoleum before you buy, as we can save you money.
Bed Ticking. Best Grade Ticking of 20c Values, Now 18c 18c Ticking 15c.	Bed Spreads. One lot of slightly soiled White Counterpanes to go at a great reduction.
Apron Checks. 8 1-3c Checks, All Colors, 6c 6c checks, Now 5c.	Skirts. $4.00 Silk Skirts for $3.00.
Linen Crash Toweling. 10c Linen Toweling 8c. 5 And 6c Toweling 4c.

Ready to wear Garments.

We have a few suits in blue serge and worsted
in broken lots that we sell at a reduction.

One lot of ladies Skirts
that we will close out
at $2.50.

One lot of ladies wrappers
each 50c.

We also carry a full line of ladies Shirt-waists and muslin underwear at marvelously
low prices.

Shoes and Oxfords For Ladies.	Shoes and Oxfords For Men
One lot of $3.00 Shoes $2.00	One lot of 4 and $5.00 Shoes $2.98
$2.50 Shoes $1.75	3 and $3.50 Shoes $2.50.
$2.00 Shoes $1.25	$2.50 Shoes $1.98
$1.50 Shoes $1.00	$2.00 Shoes $1.48
All Childrens To Go At The Same Reduction.	Men's new Florsheim Oxfords $3.50 A good plow shoe $1.25

"Cash is King" Come to This Sale and test the real strength of your dollars. Put your money to work and save more than ever before. Do not OVERLOOK the many bargains but come and bring the family.

CARNAHAN BROTHERS & DODGE,
Salem Street, MARION, KENTUCKY. Home of Low Prices.

WALNUT VIEW.

Bob Waddell left Sunday for Benton to work in the picture business.

Alvin Allen and wife were the guests of Bob Agee Sunday.

Hugh Norris and wife were the guests of Matt Waddell Sunday.

Prof. Hanlin and wife, of Tolu, were in this section last week.

Will Adams and family were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McMurry of Marion one day last week and partook of Mrs. McMurry's fine birthday dinner.

Mrs. Will Holoman has been on the sick list.

There is hardly a day passes now that we don't see or hear the hum of the automobiles, but we want to call their attention to a recent decision of the Court of Appeals as to how to handle one when they meet a horse in the road and it begins to scare at it.

Fruits of all kinds is the nearest a failure with us this year than it has been for several years. There are more seedling peaches than any thing else. There was a good prospect for apples, but they have nearly all dropped off.

Misses Mabel Crider and Ona Burton, of Sullivan, are visiting Newt Weldon and family.

Miss Grace Hill was the guest of Mrs. Annie Adams last week.

There was a large crowd at Crayne Sunday to hear Rev. Woodruff preach.

About one half of the tobacco crop is set out in this section.

Every Bottle is Guaranteed

Every bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey is guaranteed to give satisfaction in all throat and bronchial troubles.

OAK HALL

Our road overseer has at last decided to work the road.

From the looks of wheat around here there seems to be a good prospect for some biscuits next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Claghorn visited R. M. Belt Sunday.

I. J. Daugherity, of Hebron, attended Sunday School and preaching at this place Sunday.

We are glad to know that Miss Nannie Dean, who has been very ill of rheumatism, is improving.

Miss Arlie and Austin Shelton, of Dixon, are visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Condit.

Fred Gilbert and wife visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Postle-weight, Sunday.

Mr. Mather, of Marion, preached at this place Sunday afternoon.

David Postle-weight entered a sanitarium at St. Louis.

H. E. Yates and O. Jennings visited near Salem Sunday.

For All Skin Diseases

Dr. Bell's Antiseptic Salve is the best. It is a creamy snow white ointment pleasant to use and every box is guaranteed. Price 25c. At all dealers.

CROSS LANE

Mrs. Sallie Moore is spending this week with her son, J. F. Moore.

Mrs. Ellen Rich left Sunday for Evansville, where she will remain several days.

Ollie Long, wife and daughter, of Illinois, are visiting relatives and friends in this section.

M. R. Long has gone back to Kansas, after a short visit to relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Beasle Cook and little son, Curtis, are visiting in Mayfield this week.

Mrs. Mittie Howerton called on her sister, Mrs. Mayme Nunn, Thursday evening.

Several from here attended the funeral of Wm. Arfleck at Blackford Sunday.

Miss Beulah Nation visited Mrs. Edna Truitt of Rodney last week.

Several from here attended Missionary day at Crooked Creek Sunday.

Wins Fight For Life.

It was a long and bloody battle for life that was waged in James B. Mershon, of Newark, N. J., of which he writes: "I had lost much blood from lung hemorrhages, and was very weak and rundown. For eight months I was unable to work. Death seemed close on my heels, when I began, three weeks ago, to use Dr. King's New Discovery. But it has helped me greatly. It is doing all that you claim."

For weak, sore lungs, obstinate coughs, stubborn colds, hoarseness, laryngitis, asthma, hay-fever or any throat or lung trouble its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Jas. H. Orme and Haynes & Taylor.

and, Mrs. Bettie Bennett, of Fredericksburg; Mrs. Flossie Elmore, of Louisville; Mrs. Kate Yandell, of Marion; and Mrs. Fannie Gwaltney, of Charleston, Mo., were guests of Mrs. Sallie Boaz last week.

Mason Patton, of Mexico, visited his uncle, Tom Patton, at this place last week.

Henry Burklow, of Wheatcroft, is in this section visiting. Mr. Burklow was quite a liberal contributor to the new church at this place. Many thanks.

The new church at this place is on the verge of completion.

George Holoman and wife, of Missouri, came up on the steamer, J. B. Richardson, Thursday to visit their relatives here at this place.

Rev. Bailey preached at this place the third Sunday.

W. M. Redd, wife and daughter, Miss Stella, of Marion; Mrs. Callie Humphrey, of Mexico; Mrs. Fannie Travis and daughters, Misses Nellie and Miriam, of Emmaus; were guests at the home of M. L. Patton and wife last week. They went from this place to Paducah on the steamer, Nashville, to visit T. J. Wring and family a few days.

Beware of dogs. Beware of evil workers, beware of the conclusion. Philippians 3:2.

Mrs. George Campbell is in very poor health at this writing.

A large crowd from this place contemplate attending the dedication at Cookseyville the second Sunday in June.

Miss Ethel and Flossie McClure returned home Tuesday evening on the steamer, Nashville, from Nashville, Tenn., where had been visiting for quite awhile.

Jim Patton, wife and children, of Caldwell Springs, were guests of relatives here Sunday.

Several of our farmers here took advantage of the recent rains and set out some tobacco.

From the appearance of the bloom, there will be a large crop of blackberries this year.

Rev. Bob LaRue, an able minister of the gospel, was through this section last week and viewed the new church at this place.

A Charming Woman

is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But it's hard for a woman to be charming without health.

A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion.

But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health, beauty and friends. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c at James H. Orme's and Haynes & Taylor's.

MT. ZION

John Howerton and Miss Ora Carrack attended Missionary day at Crooked Creek Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Truitt and baby, Glynn, spent Sunday the guests of W. F. Crowell.

Miss Linnie Rich attended church at Baker last third Sunday.

Bill Franks has been on the sick list. Sunday School at Mt. Zion was slim Sunday, but we still have hopes.

Taylor Lucas went to Crooked Creek Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Minta Williams were in Mattoon Monday.

Dexter Daniel made a flying trip down in the Fords Ferry neighborhood Sunday evening.

The wonderful curative power of Hays' Specific in the treatment of chronic disease, as attested by the testimonials of our citizens, and the growing demand for the medicine warrant us in recommending it and guaranteeing satisfaction to our customers who use it for rheumatism, Indigestion, Eczema, Constipation, Malaria and Chills, and will refund your money if not satisfied. It is a Spring Tonic. Try it. We keep a general line of drugs and sundries. —Haynes & Taylor.

CYCLONE

Cyclone has gone dead since two of our friends have quite writing.

Ice cream supper and Kangaroo court at Irma school house last Saturday night.

Fenix Croft arrived home Saturday. Miss Sue Beabout arrived home from Nashville, Tenn., where has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. White.

The singing at R. N. Stallions' Thursday night was well attended and all who were present report a nice time.

Guy Thomas, of Glendale, spent Saturday night with his friend, Rodney Stephenson.

Miss Lillie Love, of Sheridan, has returned home from a few days visit in Marion.

Rodney Stephenson went to town Saturday and stopped at Sheridan.

SEVEN SPRINGS

Mrs. Sallie Bouz is still in very poor health.

Elbert Wring, of Paducah, was the guest of relatives here and near Evansville last week.

There was a singing at Freeman McKinney's Wednesday.

Mrs. Sallie Robinson and son, Ro-

CASTORIA

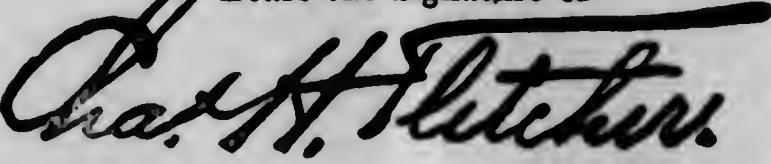

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and alays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CENTURY COMPANY, 77 BURNEY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

SHADY GROVE.

Isaac Zachary, the photographer of Providence, spent the week here the guest of Thomas C. Land and family. James Easley was in Marion Monday.

Owen Beard and W. H. Towery were in Providence Tuesday.

John Tucker and wife were the guests of their son, Kinney, of Nebo, last week.

Ewin Lowery and Todd Waide were in Providence Tuesday.

County Judge Blue, of Marion; Esq. L. J. Hodge, of Iron Hill; and several others passed through here in an automobile Tuesday.

A. F. Easley, a prominent farmer of this community, was in the Iron Hill section Thursday.

David Sigler and wife spent Thursday with the Rev. Elmon Boyster and family of Clay.

Elder Campbell was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Fred Easley, and grandfather, George W. Campbell, Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Lula Lucas, of Tolu, attended Sunday School at this place Sunday.

B. B. Terry is doing a hustling business buying eggs and delivering groceries.

Born to the wife of James Gobin, Friday May 26th, a fine girl.

John and Joseph Hall and nieces, Misses Myrtle and Zelma Dellender, and master Press Hall, were guests of William R. Hodge Saturday and Sunday.

Murray G. McDowell was in Providence Thursday.

E. M. Easley and wife, of Providence, passed through this community Saturday.

Misses Alpha and Lela Kemp, of Iron Hill, attended church here Saturday and Sunday.

George Roberts, of the Iron Hill section, passed this locality Sunday.

Work Will Soon Start

after you take Dr. King's New Life Pills, and you'll quickly enjoy their fine results. Constipation and indigestion vanish and a fine appetite returns.

They regulate stomach, liver and bowels and impart new strength and energy to the whole system. Try them. Only 25cts. at James H. Orme's and Haynes & Taylor's.

NEW SALEM.

Corn growing nicely.

Considerable tobacco set out.

Haywood Hicks has a sick child.

Who says it is not hot enough?

Mrs. John Harpending is very sick.

Mrs. Hallie Baker and Miss Blake Mahan are still quite sick, but slowly improving.

John Capron and family, of Birds-ville, were the guests of James Mahan and family last week.

Sunday May 26th, was a big day at Mt. Zion for the colored folks, and they were there from everywhere.

Mont Davenport and family were guests of relatives near View Saturday and Sunday.

Jesse Tyner left last week for the west.

The public road from New Salem to the county line, would like to have a little benefit of the road grader as the sheriff does not forget us when tax paying time comes around.

Sam Beard, of Fords Ferry, was in this section Sunday.

T. A. Harpending has a first-class milk cow for sale, first calf. Price $30.00.

Give us the news of the neighborhood, marriages, births and deaths—in fact any and everything that happens and your friends away from home will see the items.

A Dreadful wound

from a knife, gun, tin can, rusty nail, fireworks or of any other nature, demands prompt treatment with Buck-le's Arnica Salve to prevent blood poison or gangrene.

It's the quickest, surest healer for all such wounds as also for burns, boils, sores, skin eruptions, eczema, chapped hands, corns or piles. 25cts. at James H. Orme's and Haynes & Taylor's.

SALE NOTICE.

I will on Friday June 9th, 1911, on my farm half a mile south of Mexico, Crittenden Co., Ky., offer for sale at public outcry, the following described property.

Two good work mules, one work horse, two milk cows with their calves, seventeen head of stock hogs, one wagon, one buggy and harness, plows, gears, and farming implements of all kinds, corn fodder, cross-cut saws and other things too tedious to mention.

Terms will be made known on day of sale. W. B. MYERS.

BIG AVIATION MEET AT EVANSVILLE, IND., JUNE 9TH AND 10TH

The Curtiss Exhibition Co., under the auspices of the Evansville Courier will send two famous birdmen and two heavier-than-air flying machines to Evansville, for a big exhibition June 9th and 10th.

A great performance is promised, in which will be given demonstrations of what up-to-the minute birdmen have done towards a complete conquest of the air.

Reduced rates to Evansville on all railroads, traction lines and water lines.

Automobile exhibit.

Motor races.

BARGAIN DAY EVERY DAY, CHEAPER HERE THAN ELSEWHERE.

Summer Sale Bargains In Clothing and Hats!

Take advantage of Our Offerings and get the kind you want. We offer
Right Kind at Right Time and the Right Price.

SUITS

COATS

PANTS

We Fit All Sizes
of People.

Buying Along Safe Lines.

With your purchase at this store is always the assurance that the item is correct--the style the favored one--fully sanctioned by fashion. You are always enabled to secure results just a little above the ordinary. There's a pleasure, as well--coupled with the winning prices. Prices that most often drop under what you expected to pay, that makes particularly pleasant and profitable buying here.

At this time our offerings will appeal to you.
SEEING IS BELIEVING!

We are Showing a Great Line of

Hosiery, Belts
Neckwear
Corsets, Fans
Linens and Parasols.

White and Colored Wash Goods
Black and Colored Wool Goods
Waistings, Silks
Laces, All-Over Laces
Embroideries.

Right
Style
Straw
Hats.

Carpets, Rugs, Druggets,
Mattings and Lace Curtains.

Price is a Good Salesman, but Quality is a Better One.

We Have Both!

YANDELL-GUGENHEIM COMPANY.

The Crittenden Record-Press
Marion, Ky., June 8, 1911

S. M. JENKINS Editor and Publisher.

Entered as second-class matter February 28, 1911, at the post office at Marion, Kentucky, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

$1.50 per year.
75 cents for five months.
20 cents for one month.

CASH ADVERTISING RATES:
per inch S. C. to Foreign Advertisers.
per inch S. C. to Home Advertisers.
Repeated 1/2 one-half rate.
Metal bases only used for Plates and Electrocs.
Electrocs. 1/2 line.
Letters 1/2 line in twelve point type.
Obituaries 5cts per line.
Card of Thanks 5cts per line.
Resolutions of Respect: 5cts per line.

CASH WITH COPY

We are authorized to announce
Thomas S. Rhea, of Logan county,
as a candidate for treasurer,
of the state of Kentucky, subject to the action of the democratic primary, to be held July 1 1911.

TOBACCO TIDINGS.
BY R. F. WHEELER.

A LESSON FROM THE BURLEY DISTRICT

We all remember the recent failure of the Burley Tobacco Society. How, after successfully marketing several crops, it, through the opposition of the Independent grower, and the attacks of the American Society of Equity, was compelled to give up the fight.

We also remember that at the time of the failure of the Society, that Burley tobacco was selling at an average of about $16.00 per hundred lbs. and in less than ten days it had fallen to an average of about $8.00.

Now it is not our intention to take sides in the fight between the A. S. of E. and the Burley Tobacco Society. We have troubles of our own. We do not know whether there was any foundation, in fact for the grave charges and insinuations made by the official organ of the A. S. of E. against the business management of the Tobacco Society.

We do not know whether the A. S. of E. could have marketed the crop to better advantage, or with more economy to the grower.

But this we do know, that when the Burley Tobacco Society was organized, that type of tobacco was selling much below the cost of production. That under its administration the price steadily advanced, until it sold one crop at an average of more than $20.00 per hundred average, that with all its alleged extravagance, the grower received more than twice the amount for his tobacco than he did before its organization.

We believe that the action of the A. S. of E. together with that of the independent grower caused the defeat of the Burley Tobacco Society; yet neither was able to keep up the price afterwards, although both made frantic efforts to do so. We know that owing to the failure of the Burley tobacco Society the growers lost several millions of dollars last year, with no hopes of relief.

We told you last week that every farmers organization is a good one if confined to its own sphere of action; but that organization like individuals make mistakes. For one farmers organization to undertake the pooling of a product in a district where that product is already under the control of another farmers organization; thereby causing friction among the growers, and competition on the market; seems to us to be a blunder of the gravest character.

We are making no comparison. We have been only stating facts. If, however, you can see a similarity in the state of affairs in this district and that of the burley district, you may learn a lesson that will avert a like disaster befalling the growers here.

Miss Mary Lou Myers, of Cridger will entertain a house party this week of which Misses Marian Clement of this city, Gaile Cruce of Ardmore Okla., and Elizabeth Spence of Elizabethtown will be members.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of Execution No. 1499 directed to me, which issued from the Clerk's office of the Crittenden Circuit Court in favor of J. Gans & Co. against Jas. L. Rankin for the sum of $299 Dollars and 62 cents, I, or one of my Deputies, will, on Monday the 26th day of June 1911, between the hours of 10 o'clock, A. M. and 2 o'clock, P. M. at the Court House Door in Crittenden county Ky., expose to PUBLIC SALE to the highest bidder, the following property (or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy Plaintiff's debt, interest and costs), to wit: 106 3/4 acres of land, lying on the Caldwell Spring branch, and bounded on the South by Mrs. Rosa Mapes on the north by Ed Harpending, on the South by Clint Brasher, and on the east by C. Ralston, for further description see Deed Book 14 Page 150 Crittenden County Clerk's Office. Leved upon as the property of J. L. Rankin.

TERMS: Sale will be made on a credit of six months, bond with approved security required of the purchaser, with interest from date at the rate of 6 percent. per annum, and having the force and effect of a judgement.

Witness my hand, this 5 day of June 1911.

JOEL A. C. PICKENS
Sheriff C. C.

Thos. W. Champion, that prince of good fellows, who was here on a sad mission of laying away the remains of his father, was welcomed by his old friends with open arms. He was the guest of J. J. Clement at dinner Sunday, of T. J. Yandell Monday and J. H. Orme Tuesday and had other invitations he could not accept.

Henry Bros. are expecting another car load of Vermont Granite. They are putting out an unusual amount of work this last month. They also have ready for June delivery a fine white stone for Adcock of Hampton, also one for Squire W. H. Asher, at Repton and many others, all of handsome design and fine proposition.

J. B. KEVIL.

Lawyer.

NOTARY PUBLIC

Abstracting A Specialty.
Surveying and Draughting.

ROOM 1. PRESS BLDG.
MARION, KY.

Card of Thanks

We wish to offer our sincere thanks to our many friends of Lola for the kindness shown us in the last illness of our dear husband and father, May heavens richest blessings rest upon each of you is our prayer.

Mrs. Roxie Sisco and children.

What's the Use

To suffer with sore eyes when one 25c tube of Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve will cure you. We guarantee it. You risk nothing. It's a creamy, snow white ointment.

Dedication Service

The church at Sulphur Springs or what is known as Cookseyville will be dedicated next Sunday at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. D. Powell corresponding sec'y of Missions for Ky. Everybody invited to come. J. S. Henry, Pastor

Dorr has some new idea
Kitchen Cabinets in splendid values at 10, 15 and 20 dollars

Do You Get The Best?

If you have a cough, cold, asthma, croup or any throat or bronchial trouble and use Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey, you do. Look for the Bell on the bottle.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bear the Signature of

Work Started on New Methodist Church.

Mr. Mather, pastor of the Methodist Church left yesterday for Corydon, Ky., to attend the district conference of his Church which is in session this week at that place. Mrs. Mather accompanied her husband, and will proceed from there to Owensboro, where she is to attend as a delegate to the Annual Meeting of the Womans' Foreign Missionary Society of the Louisville Annual Conference. Mr. Mather will be home again on Friday.

Work on the new Methodist Church began in good earnest last week, when the contractor, Forest B. Heath, accompanied by a number of able workmen commenced excavating for the foundations.

The corner stone of the new building is to be laid on Saturday June 24th, under the auspices of the grand Lodge of Kentucky, F. & A. M., by Rev. C. C. Woods, D. D. Associate Editor of the St. Louis Christian Advocate, and a past Grand master of the Grand Master of Masons of Missouri, assisted by a number of distinguished brethren from various places.

After the ceremony is concluded there will be a special programme gone through in the Main St. Presbyterian Church, which building has been kindly placed at the disposal of Mr. Mather and his congregation for this occasion. The speakers expected will include Congressman Ollie M. James, of Washington, D. C.; General David R. Murray of Indianapolis, John L. Wheat, Esq., of Louisville, Ky.; Dr. R. C. Blackmer of St. Louis, and others.

We hope next week to be able to furnish our readers with a complete detail of the programme, including speakers, order of procession, and every thing contemplated in this most unique event of its kind ever held in Crittenden County.

Mrs. Sue Dixon is the guest of her sister Mrs. Yates while her daughter Miss Mira is visiting in Paducah.

For Sale

House and lot in Marion, having three good size rooms, one small room. Front veranda, two back porches, smoke house and coal house, well fenced, good garden, good well and some fruit trees grown on lot. This property will be sold for less than its value. Mrs. J. H. Young, Marion, Ky.

Robinson-Williams.

Burns Robinson, of Hampton, and Miss Amy Blanche Williams, of Lola, were married Wednesday morning June 7th, 1911, at the residence of the bride's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Morris, on south Main street in this city, Rev. Carl Boucher officiating. They left on the 11 o'clock train for Dawson to spend a few days at the New Century Hotel before returning to their home.

Looking For Trouble

I will be in Marion next week, with a letter from my house instructing me to look for trouble. If any one at any time has purchased any goods from me that did not give perfect satisfaction be ready with your complaints when I come.

I will have some new specialties with me this trip.

Res't

J. L. Richards

Dawson Springs Ky.

Miss Sallie Woods went to Princeton Tuesday to meet her relatives the Misses White of Helena, Ark., who have arrived to spend the summer with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. D. Woods.

Mr. H. D. Pollard returned from Providence and has bought out Copher's grocery and Bakery. The inventory is being made and the deal will be closed up in full to-day. Mr. Pollard informs us that he will have his cream bread and other bakery products on sale tomorrow and Saturday and will carry a selected stock and cater to the best trade.

Look To Your Own Interest First.

By Taking Quality In Consideration First, You Start In The Right Direction To Protect Yourself. You Have Also Started In The Direction Of Our Store. Where QUALITY Comes First. We Make The Price Right.

Clothing that Fits
Holds it's Shape.
Holds it's Color
and Wears Well Too.
That's the Kind We Have For You.
Do You Like the Way
This Sounds?
—Allright, Come
See The Clothes.
We'll Fix The Price.

Extra Values In Druggets
Regular 9 x 12 Size at a Saving of $1.50 to $2.50 to You.

Remember in getting ready to take
Summer Vacation you may want a nice trunk or suit-case, Thin Dresses, Tennis
Shoes and etc.

We are prepared to serve you.

Keep Kool Underwear, in union and seperate garments, long or short sleeve ankle or knee length. Soft Shirts, with or without collars, from 50c to $2.50.

We have already cut
the price on a lot of
LOW CUT SHOES
Some late Patent Oxfords
Regular $3.50, Cut Price,
$2.50.
Several others in same
Proportion. So don't wait now until late
When just the size
you want will be gone
The Same Kind of Knife
Has Struck Some of our
Low Cuts for Men
And Children.

Taylor & Cannan, Marion, Ky.

For the best Dentistry see Dr. Crawford, Marion Bank Building.

Miss Hazel Pollard has returned from Elkton where she visited her grandmother, Mrs. Petree.

Prof. and Mrs. J. U. Snyder left last Thursday for Jellico, Tenn., to spend their vacation.

For land's sake use Bowker's fertilizer. For sale by R. H. Kemp, phone No. M. 2 rings.

Miss Grace Hill of Chapel Hill was here Saturday. She is taking music lessons from Miss Ina Price.

Wanted-Roomers—M. E. Cannon, Walker St.

Hershel and Earle Butler of Salem were here Saturday the guests of their brother, Ernest Butler.

For soreness of the muscles induced by violent exercise or injury, Chamberlain's Liniment is excellent. This liniment is also highly esteemed for the relief it affords in cases of rheumatism. Sold by all dealers.

Miss Linda Jenkins who has been the guest of Miss Joyce Adams at Henderson returned home yesterday.

Deering binder twine 7½ cents a pound at Olive & Walker's. 49 2t.

Mrs. R. W. Wilson left Friday for Paducah to visit her brother A. M. Witherspoon and his wife for a week or so.

It is worse than useless to take any medicines internally for muscular or chronic rheumatism. All that is needed is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. For sale by all dealers.

Lowell Edward Hurley, a son, was born Tuesday afternoon, to Mrs. Oliver Hurley, mother and child are getting along nicely.

Chase Leather Davenports in medium and High Grades, and each one a bargain at the price asked. DORR, the old reliable Undertaker & Furniture dealer.

Mrs. Walter A. Blackburn and children who have been the guests of her mother Mrs. Hurley have returned to their home at Paducah.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has made it a favorite everywhere. It can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.

All Dental work guaranteed satisfactory by Dr. Crawford.

Miss Irene Browning left for her home at Rosiclare, Ills., after a pleasant visit to her aunt Mrs. A. S. Cavender.

Very best Deering binder twine 7½ cents a pound at Olive & Walker's. 49 2t.

Miss Nannie Lamb, of near Sturgis, left Thursday for Wheatcroft where she will engage in the art of dressmaking.

—News Democrat.

If you want a good reliable fertilizer without any crushed rock or injurious acids, get it from C. R. Newcom at Produce Ex. R. Newcom at Produce Ex.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stallion of Crayne were here Saturday to do some shopping and get some ice for their son Stinson who is still quite ill.

Wanted to do cleaning, pressing and dyeing. M. E. Cannon, Walker St. in rear of school bl'g.

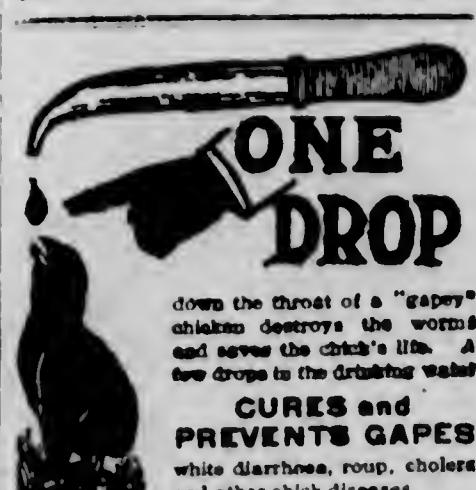

To all new subscribers of the Crittenden Record-Press or renewals sent in before June 30th, we will send free twelve months "Our Country," a monthly magazine for home and farm, selling price 5 cents a copy.

The Crittenden Record-Press.

Mrs. Fannie Jennings and daughter Mrs. Vic Butler and children of Salem were the guests of Jas. W. Paris, Mrs. Jennings's father and of other relatives last Sunday.

The best whippoorwill peas, $2.70 C. R. Newcom.

We guarantee Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve to cure common sore eyes in 24 to 36 hours. This seems strange, but it is backed by our guarantee. You run no risk and it only costs 25¢

One 50c Bottle of Bourbon Poultry Cure Makes 12 Gallons of Medicine. Every poultry raiser should keep a bottle of this medicine on hand. Write for free sample and booklet on "Diseases of Poultry." Address BOURBON REMEDY COMPANY, Lexington, Ky.

Sold By
Haynes & Taylor

Judge James A. Moore who attended Circuit Court at Princeton has returned home.

Don't forget Carnahan Bros. & Dodge's sale is on and prices are being cut as never before.

Mrs. Emmett Koltinsky left Tuesday for Union county to visit her mother.

State Senator P. S. Maxwell left for Okla., Tuesday at noon to be absent several weeks.

Mrs. H. D. Pollard and daughter, Miss Lucile have returned from Elkton where the latter has been attending school.

Miss Anna Haynes has returned from Deland Fla., where she spent the winter and was a student at the Stetson University.

Olive & Walker sell Deering binder twine, the best made, at 7½ cents per pound. 49 2t.

Mrs. C. E. Weldon left Sunday for Dawson, where she will spend several weeks.

The best whippoorwill peas, $2.70 C. R. Newcom.

Tom Holt, a prominent business man of Sturgis, spent Sunday in the city.

Mrs. Cordie Hubbard and daughter, Miss Bernice, are the guests of her father, Noah Fox, in the Iron Hill neighborhood.

Mrs. Creed A. Taylor entertained the younger set Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Irene Browning of Rosiclare, Ills.

Mrs. M. C. Dulaney of Fredonia is the guest of Mrs. Emma Haywood at the Hotel Crittenden for a few days.

There is one medicine that every family should be provided with and especially during the summer months; viz, Chamberlain's Cholic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed. It costs but a quarter. Can you afford to be without it? For sale by all dealers.

Mrs. J. B. Hubbard, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Durham, of Nebo and her son, Dennis, of Providence, returned home Friday.

R. C. Smith and Miss Sudie Beck were married Tuesday morning May 31 by Rev. M. E. Miller at the study of the Baptist church. The young people live near New Bethel in Lyon Co.

—News Democrat.

Mrs. G. C. Gray went to Edyville Friday to visit Mrs. Mary A. Jenkins and other friends and relatives. She will also go to her old home at Saratoga Springs while absent and probably to Kuttawa.

Thos. W. Champion of Ardmore Okla., (who came to Hopkinsville and accompanied the remains of his father to Livingston Co.) was here several days ago with old friends.

Miss Elizabeth Spencer who has been Mrs. J. I. Clement guest for the past 2 weeks has returned to her home at Elizabethtown.

Loren Yates' new Pressing machine is the sensation of the day. He has crowds all the time and is already busy as every one else is in the "Busy Bee Block."

Miss Carolyn Harris who has been teaching at Hammond, La., was here a few days this week enroute to her home, Corydon Ky., to spend her vacation.

Rev. Escott will preach at the Southern Presbyterian church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 8 o'clock all are invited to come out and hear him.

Miss Cora Graves and Robt. Scott and wife of Dycusburg were guests of E. J. Haywood and family Wednesday.

Carnahan Bros. & Dodge great clearance sale is in full blast, and is drawing good crowds.

Miss Lora Johnson of Caldwell Springs is in the city the guest of Mrs. Lumie Clark and other friends and relatives.

Miss Florence Harris one of the most popular of the teachers in the Graded School returned to her home at Corydon last week to spend her vacation.

Pinkney Champion went to Hopkinsville to attend his brother J. B. Champion Jr. who died there. He returned here Friday afternoon.

Mrs. H. A. Haynes arrived home Friday from Marietta Okla. where she had been to bring her little grand daughter home with her and to see her daughter, Mrs. Trice Bennett off to Ashville N. C.

Miss Ruth McChesney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McChesney, of North Seventh St. returned last night from Lexington, Ky., where she has been a student at the state University.

—News Democrat.

Mrs. G. C. Gray went to Edyville Friday to visit Mrs. Mary A. Jenkins and other friends and relatives. She will also go to her old home at Saratoga Springs while absent and probably to Kuttawa.

Miss "Mug" Walker an aged maiden lady, who has lived with her maiden sister "Sis" near Iron Hill for many years died at her home Tuesday evening at 7:30 and was buried Wednesday afternoon at Sugar Grove. She was 79 years old and had made her home with Bert Walker who took care of her and her sister, in token of his appreciation of the gift of the farm to him from them.

Miss Maude Gill left Tuesday for Richard, N. M. She will stop at Denison and other Texas points, and will visit her brother Harry Gill also.

Wednesday night, June 6th the Marion Electric Light & Ice Co. turned on 4 new street lights at the following places: Luther Miller's corner on Morganfield St. Jeff Asher's near Marion Milling Co., Mrs. Sue Dixon's corner Carlisle and Walker St., and near Colored Cumberland Presbyterian church. On account of delay in getting transformers the other 2 are not yet installed but are ready otherwise and will be turned on as soon as transformers arrive.

No Danger

In taking Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey for coughs and colds. It contains no habit producing drugs. Look for the Bell on the bottle.

Miss Eva Clement entertained at "500" Friday evening at the residence of her parents Dr. and Mrs. I. H. Clement on Bellville in honor of Misses Elizabeth Spencer of Elizabethtown, Ky., and Gaile Cruse of Ardmore Okla.

There were three tables and the elite of the young society set were present. Mrs. W. O. Tucker, a cousin of the hostess presided with grace at the punch table. Refreshments of cream and cake were served. The affair was pleasant in every detail and Miss Clement proved herself a most charming hostess.

We Don't Have To

Tell you what it's for it's name tells. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is the best cough medicine and several million people already know it. Look for the bell on the bottle.

Better for you than agents or commission merchants.

Reference: any book in Louisville. We furnish Wool Bags Free in our shipping. Write for price list.

M. SABEL & SONS
Established 1856
Louisville, Ky.

Misses Kittie and Ruth Clement were here Saturday and again Wednesday to take music lessons from Miss Ina Price.

FRANKS

Bitterly Arraigns Judge O'Rear in Speech at Barbourville.

OPENS CAMPAIGN FOR NOMINATION

Declares That Republicans Must Stand For Law Enforcement or Meet Political Ruin.

DENOUNCES MOBS AND NIGHT RIDERS

Barbourville, Ky., May 22.—Rarely if ever in the history of Kentucky has one candidate for the nomination for Governor of the State so mercilessly arraigned another as E. T. Franks arraigned Judge O'Rear in his opening speech here today. After declaring for redistricting, for tax revision, for better schools and better roads, for the endorsement of the county unit bill as advocated in the 1907 platform, Mr. Franks said that the most important matter before the people of the State today is the enforcement of the law, and he declared in effect that there are not enough night-riders and mob-members in the Republican party to nominate or elect a candidate who does not stand firmly for law and order. Mr. Franks' speech, which was heard and approved by a record-breaking crowd, was in part as follows:

When I made my announcement as a candidate for Governor, I stated that I would not make a speaking campaign for the nomination, giving as a reason my fear that it would engender bad feeling, and thus make it more difficult for us to win in November, but self-preservation is universally allowed to be the first law of nature, and if Judge O'Rear or any one else thinks that he can come and attack me in my own home without getting into a scrap, he is destined to a rude awakening when he tries it. Hence I have decided to take the stump in advocacy of my claims for the Republican nomination for Governor, and if it is a speaking campaign that Judge O'Rear wants, I shall accommodate him to his heart's content, though I repeat my opinion that it would have been better for the party if no speeches had been made until after the July convention.

I have been here many times before. In every hard-fought battle that you have had for the past twenty years I have come to your aid at the first call, and I have enjoyed my visits to your city very much indeed. I always feel at home in the mountains. I have campaigned so much in the mountains that I feel as much at home up here as I do in Jackson's Purchase, where I was born and reared, or in the Pennyrile, where my home has been so long. In the last twenty years I have had the pleasure of speaking in one hundred and ten of the one hundred and nineteen counties of the State. Wherever I have spoken, my views on the fundamental principles of the Republican party are well known.

The natural resources of Kentucky are not surpassed in importance or equalled in variety by those of any other State. Her shores are washed by more miles of navigable streams than are possessed by any other State; her soil is as fertile as the Delta of the Nile; many of her mountains and valleys are covered with virgin timber that has never yet heard the sound of the woodman's ax; no State has more coal, and none can produce it more cheaply; we have iron, spar, lead, zinc, and the best quality of fire-clay in abundance. There is enough water power, unused and going to waste, to operate every wheel and spindle in the State without using a bushel of coal, and yet steam coal can be delivered at our furnace doors at a lower cost than almost anywhere else on this earth. We are in close proximity to the fast-developing Southland, where there awaits us a ready market for everything that we manufacture. We have the natural resources, and we have the men to develop them. A braver and more patriotic citizenship, on the whole, is not to be found in any State, and why should not Kentucky forge to the front as one of the leading States of the Union in farming, in manufactures, in mining, in education and in all the varied interests of a great people inhabiting a great land?

For years we have been shipping our raw material elsewhere. It has been worked up and shipped back to us, we paying the freight both ways and losing the potential profit. Why do we not manufacture at home? There must be a reason. What is it? There is something radically wrong, or these conditions would not exist. I will tell you what is wrong. Our taxing system is wrong, and we do not enforce our laws or preserve public order.

We should begin our program of change by altering our apportionment laws, so as to give every citizen of the State equal representation. I do not hesitate to say that our apportionment laws are a disgrace to civilization, a crime in the garb of law, and should make every honest man of whatever party hang his head in shame when he thinks of the great injustice that has been done to the people by Democratic legislators, who cared not for the public good, but did the bidding of those enemies of the State who had before them and in them nothing but their lust for continued power as a necessary condition of their political existence.

Mob Rule and Night Riders. There should be a change in our laws relative to mobs. Better protection should be given to persons accused of crime, whether such persons are in jail or in the hands of arresting officers. It is a practice all too common in Kentucky for men to band themselves together, generally under cover of darkness, and take from the officers of the law persons accused of offenses more or less grave, and put them to death.

I favor a law giving the Governor the right, under certain conditions, to remove from office any officer or jailor who shall permit a mob to take from such officer or from the jail any prisoner charged with any crime whatever.

This law has been recently invoked with good effect by a Democratic Governor in Ohio and by a Republican Governor in Illinois, and we should have such a law in Kentucky. Kentucky has for years been clamoring for more business and inviting immigration. More than one million immigrants landed in the United States in 1910, nearly 300,000 of them farm laborers. How many of them came to Kentucky? A surprisingly small number. Where did they go? To every place except Kentucky. But that is not the worst. A great number of those we already had—citizens of Kentucky—have gone away within the past year. You can scarcely travel on a train leaving Kentucky that you do not see Northerners flocking to other States, seeking homes in a distant land—and why is it? You can talk for business, you can talk prosperity for our State until you make me sick, but it does no good.

Law and Order Must Come First. First, and before everything else in the world, must come Law and Order. Fewer mobs and less of the mob spirit and the certain and unsparing enforcement of the law will convince the world that we mean what we say, and then we shall get men and money from everywhere. Money and men joined together make business, and when we shall have them Old Kentucky will blossom as the rose. I think it necessary for our platform at this time to speak out in no uncertain terms for Law and Order. A county or a State or a nation that will not protect its citizens, from the highest to the humblest, and all alike, is not worthy of its name and place, and the right to govern should be taken from it.

E. T. FRANKS.

Gentlemen, it is needless for me to say to you that I am a Republican, holding fast to all the fundamental principles of the party, and that means that I am not an insurgent Republican. I do not allow Senator LaFollette and Senator Bourne to do my thinking, and I do not propose to follow where they lead. I noticed an article in a Louisville paper of May 11, with a Washington date line, saying that LaFollette and Hearst are likely to head a new national ticket.

My friend, Judge O'Rear, in apologizing for some of the things in his platform, said that such well-known Republicans as Senator LaFollette and Senator Bourne had been advocating them for years. Judge O'Rear may follow where they lead if he wishes, but I say to you that I will not.

I asked a friend a few days ago if he believed in a progressive Republican. "That depends," he said. "There are three ways a man can progress and be a progressive Republican. One way is toward the Republican party, another way is toward the Democratic party, and the third is toward what was once known as the Populist party. It depends on which way a man progresses whether I believe in him as a progressive Republican or not."

That reminds me of an inscription I once read on a tombstone: "Take up thy cross and follow me." A was wrote beneath:

"To follow you I'm not intent till I find out which way you went."

The so-called progressive or insurgent Republicans of the House and Senate have been very kind to President Taft in the past fifteen months, and he ought to feel very kindly toward them. They have succeeded in giving him a Democratic House by sixty-seven majority, and counting LaFollette, Bourne, Clapp, Poindexter, Cummings and Bristow with the Democrats (as they won't vote with the Republicans), they have also given Mr. Taft a Democratic Senate. I am not a new-fangled Republican. I am one of those who believe in the platform adopted at Chicago in 1908, and I propose to stand by that platform and contend for the faith expressed in it until the party shall speak again with the same authority. Progressives? Why, the Republican party is the most progressive party that has had an existence under this government in the last hundred years. It broke the shackles from four million slaves, and made them freemen. It fought the greatest war of modern times and preserved the Union of States, making it the greatest nation in the history of man. It assumed specific payments and made every dollar in the land as good as every other dollar. It set the seal of condemnation on the Democratic nightmare of rag money. It fought free silver to the death and there are now none to mourn its departure.

I am rooted and grounded in the faith that we must have protection for American industry and American labor in order to have and maintain prosperity in this country.

I think it proper that I should make myself thoroughly understood as to that great army of men who till the soil, the farmers of Kentucky because it has been said by some who are supporting other candidates that some of the farmers of Kentucky would vote against me because of what I said about the Night Riders in a speech I delivered at Hopkinsville in 1908. I do not hold to the belief that Republican farmers are against me on that account or any other account. I was on a farm. I have helped the farmers, my neighbors, to build their homes, roll their logs, grow their tobacco, thresh their wheat, make up their molasses—in fact, I have done some of every kind of work known to the farming fraternity in this state. I have mixed and mingled with them all my life. I know the farmers of Kentucky, who they are and what they stand for, and I am proud that so many of them know me, as I am proud to know them.

In that speech at Hopkinsville I stated that if I were a farmer I would belong to all of their organizations that sought in a lawful way to enhance the price of farm products. I believe the farmers have a right to organize for self-protection, and I would be glad to see every farmer in the land take a greater interest in the welfare of every other farmer, know the hardships through which the farmer passes each year as he toils to make an honest living for himself and those dependent upon him, eating two meals a day by lamplight the year round taking chances with the elements, to have his crop destroyed by drought or flood, and, should he escape both and gather abundantly at harvest time, to have great combinations of wealth to sit in judgment on the prices, forcing them down sometimes below the cost of production. This is the common lot of the farmer in Kentucky. I know these things are hard, and they should be remedied at once—but who is to do it? The Democratic party will not do it, because it has controlled legislation in Kentucky since 1865 without a break, except at one time the Republicans had the House, but the Democrats controlled the Senate. If there is no law in Kentucky to punish great combinations of wealth, formed and used to oppress the people, it is the fault of the Democratic party and not the fault of the Republican party. I promise, if elected Governor, to enforce impartially, without fear or favor, such existing laws as may be invoked against the employment of capital in a manner oppressive to the people, and to use all the power that may be at my command to secure the passage of laws that will effectively break up these wrongful operations of capital. That is the remedy and the only remedy. "But," one will say, "we can not get our officers to enforce the law." Then you should elect men who will enforce the law. But for God's sake, for the sake of your State, your home and your family, do not undertake to secure redress through the mob. A mob never settled anything except to bring disgrace upon the community, and for ever damn those who engaged in the mob. It is an insult to any honest farmer to say that he will get mad at you for denouncing mobs. Mobs are in nearly every instance composed of cowards and of the lower elements in the community, and for any man to become incensed when you denounce a mob will naturally cause the public to think that he was either in the mob or was in sympathy with it. And a man that is in sympathy with the mob and does not join it if he has the opportunity, is a greater coward than those who do join, and that is the reason he does not join.

Assails Judge O'Rear on Mob Rule.

Judge O'Rear had something to say about mobs in his speech at Hopkinsville, a part of which I endorse and a part of which I do not endorse. He said, in speaking of the attitude of Governor Wilson toward him:

"The Governor knew my views on the situation, for at his instance I had several conferences with him on the subject. I said in the speech (the Frankfort speech) that the Governor was to be commanded for his efforts to restore peace and protect life and property, as well as to bring to punishment the violators of the law."

If Judge O'Rear had stopped there the world would have said: "Well done, good and faithful servant." But listen to what he said next, which spoiled all that had gone before:

"But I further said that in my opinion the disorders were symptomatic; that they reflected the feeling of resentment of many growers that they had suffered long oppression, and that the law had not afforded them any remedy; that the surest way to prevent similar outbreaks was to remove the cause of them; that the growers could not be convinced that they were not being outrageously oppressed by threats of punishment; that you could not push an idea through an Anglo-Saxon's head with a bayonet."

What does Judge O'Rear mean by that? Does he mean to say that the Governor ought not to have called out soldiers to prevent murder, arson and intimidation? He says:

"The farmers were being depressed by threats. The disorders were symptomatic."

Which no one denies, but we differ as to the remedy. Does he mean by that that the right way to settle the troubles was through the mob, the torch and the whipping post? Why did he not say: "Gentlemen, your troubles are real and your grievance great, but your remedy is in the law and you must not take it into your own hands." He says:

"The growers could not be convinced that they were not being outrageously oppressed by threats of punishment." Who was threatening the honest tobacco growers? The only threats that anybody heard of were against the Night Riders and by the Night Riders. Nobody made any threats against the honest tobacco growers except the night riders. I protest against Judge O'Rear or any one else placing the night rider and the honest tobacco grower upon the same level or in the same class, and again ask, Who threatens the honest tobacco growers?

Judge O'Rear said: "You can not push an idea through an Anglo-Saxon's head with a bayonet."

Who were these "Anglo-Saxons" that you speak of that the soldiers were sent out to suppress? "They are not night riders." Judge O'Rear knew at the night riders were not organized, and they were the ones of the law in the counties where the night riders lived and did their work could not or would not suppress them do you mean to say that the soldiers could not charge their bayonets from those of mob members to those of peaceful citizens? They were killing people, they were burning homes, they were destroying depots, they were laying cities in ashes, they were driving men from the State. These men were being threatened, and no one else was threatened—and yet the judge says that you could not push an idea through their heads with a bayonet. And again he says:

"If, however, any opponent, Democrat or Republican, cares to take up the other side, I am prepared to meet him on the subject."

I will take the other side and make my appeal to the law-abiding people of Kentucky. I am willing to abide by their decision, even on his statement made at Hopkinsville, and ignore his statement at Frankfort, that he waited three years to explain, and which he did not then explain until he became a candidate for Governor.

Of course the Democrats are not going to fight Judge O'Rear now. They want him nominated, and will hold their fire until after the nominations are made. But I here and now enter my solemn protest against the nomination by the Republican party of a candidate for Governor holding the views on law and order that have been expressed publicly by Judge O'Rear. Whenever the Republican party, the party of Lincoln, of Grant, Garfield, Harrison, McKinley, Roosevelt and Taft, forsakes the principles of Law and Order and sinks at mobs and mob violences, it should go into exile and never again boast of more than half a century of the greatest achievements known to political history.

Judge O'Rear may have thought he was right when he made that statement, and if the people think he said the right thing or the thing that ought to have been said at that time, everything else being equal, he should be nominated, but when you do nominate him, if you do, you have struck a blow at the very cornerstone of civil liberty. You should think well before making your decision.

The conference to which Judge O'Rear alludes was called by the Governor just after the night riders had put the torch to Princeton, Hopkinsville and Rosselle, and about the time that Hiram Hedges was murdered in cold blood by the night riders in the presence of his wife and babies and in his own home. It was at this time that lovers of law and order should have had their wits about them. They should have said and done the right thing at the right time. The eyes of the world were on Kentucky, and she cried: "Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Then why is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?"

We all agree that the trust was doing wrong, and for that wrong they ought to have been punished, but there was a way and a place. They should have been taken to the proper forum, where the weak and the strong meet upon a common level. Chapter 101, Kentucky Statutes, beginning with Section 3,015, provides a way, and no one was better prepared than Judge O'Rear to explain the line of procedure. That statute fixes a fine of from $500 to $5,000, or six months to twelve months in the county jail, or the court may so fine and imprison at the discretion of the jury. Proceedings could have been brought by any one of 119 County Attorneys or by any one of thirty-four Commonwealth Attorneys. The courts are open always, and Judge O'Rear, sitting in the court of last resort, could have seen to it that justice was given them if the cases ever got to his court. Why did he not advise what line to pursue instead of saying:

"You can not push an idea through an Anglo-Saxon's head with a bayonet."

There is no place in this land of the free and home of the brave for mobs and the mob spirit. I think that every man at that peace conference should have said that law and order must reign and that peace must be established, and those in that conference should have met mob violence with that stern determination that would have convinced all that law-breakers could find no encouragement at the State Capitol, and especially none from a member of the Court of Appeals of the State. But, instead, Judge O'Rear threw a bombshell into the camp of Law and Order that kindled more fire in the breasts of the night riders and mob sympathizers than all the speeches and all the editorials that had gone before. Why?

"But I further said that in my opinion the disorders were symptomatic; that they reflected the feeling of resentment of many growers that they had suffered long oppression, and that the law had not afforded them any remedy; that the surest way to prevent similar outbreaks was to remove the cause of them; that the growers could not be convinced that they were not being outrageously oppressed by threats of punishment; that you could not push an idea through an Anglo-Saxon's head with a bayonet."

The law-breakers had a right to think that if the Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals should feel that way about their acts, they had not to fear any trouble from the inferior courts or from officers clothed with less power. That very speech gave Judge O'Rear the sympathy of every night rider in Kentucky. It was carried from neighborhood to neighborhood, from county to county, wherever these sons of darkness had an organization.

"It was told in Gath and it was published in the streets of Ascalon," until every night rider in the State began to sing the praises of Judge O'Rear. At the same time, however, his speech drove from him a greater number of law-and-order men, so that he lost more than he gained.

And there is another thing that should be taken into consideration. Night riders, as a rule, are confined to Democratic localities, and they have but little to do in Republican conventions and Republican elections. I do not mean to give offense, but the records show that night riding flourishes only in Democratic strongholds, with but one single exception. That exception is Christian County, but I do not mean any reflection on Christian County, God bless her. She has comparatively few night riders of her own, but she has suffered grievously at the hands of the lawless from other and Democratic counties. The mob that destroyed her beautiful city came from another county. They travel from one county to another. There are not many of them, although Judge O'Rear thinks there are enough of them to nominate him for Governor. He is mistaken. They can not get into Republican conventions. If all the Republican night riders in Kentucky should attend the convention in Christian County, where he opened his campaign, there would not be enough of them to carry that county for Judge O'Rear, because there are more law and order people in Christian County than there are Republican night riders in the entire State of Kentucky. They are nearly all Democrats, and Judge O'Rear is supposed to be a Republican; but, to read his speech, one might have some doubt.

Yet Hopkinsville is where Judge O'Rear went to open his campaign, and before the ink was dry on his announcement as a candidate he pitched his tent in Dawson Springs—Dawson Springs, where the night riders visited one of the leading hotels about the time of his Frankfort speech, and took therefrom one of the guests of the hotel, dragged him to the river bank, whipped him and made him leave the country, and to day, on account of the night riders he is forced to make his home in a distant State. The Judge, while at the Springs, was in daily communion with his friends in that part of the State, and doubtless received many assurances of support—from the Democratic night riders.

He capped the climax by opening his campaign at Hopkinsville, where, during the night-riders troubles a mob, estimated to contain from two hundred to three hundred men, all masked, visited the city under cover of darkness, shooting up the plate glass fronts from one end of the main street to the other, burning tobacco factories, shooting a railroad engineer off his engine, whipping people and committing almost every crime and outrage known to night riders. I can imagine that if the Judge had paused to listen during his speech he could still have heard the echo of the rattling glass, the tramp of the midnight mob, and could have smelled the smoke that I should think still hangs low over the rich valleys of good old Christian County, from the burning barns over the destruction of which suits are now pending in the United States Court at Owensboro. I say, the people are wondering why this man should have gone to this place at this time to open his campaign. I will admit that I am at a loss to know, unless it was that he might be in close proximity to the mobs that burned Princeton and Hopkinsville, or have a reunion of the night riders of the State, where he could be present.

But, gentlemen, is that the way to bring capital to your State? The only investor, when contemplating coming among us, will ask the question, "Who is your Governor?" What did he do during your night-riders troubles? Which side was he on?" Judge O'Rear's friends are boasting that he went into his district to open his campaign, and a paper supporting him said, "O'Rear has boarded the flot in his don." There were eight other districts in the State which had no candidates for Governor, and in course he might have gone to any one of these. Not satisfied with invading my district, he has designs on my county, as is evident by the letters he is writing to the precinct committeemen of that county. Since Judge O'Rear made his announcement I have not so much as sent a letter to his district. Courtesy demands certain things of a candidate for the high office of Governor, and no man understands that courtesy better than Judge O'Rear, but ambition has dethroned courtesy, and the temptation was so great that he could not resist it. Judge O'Rear, of course, has the right to conduct his campaign as he sees fit, but when a man comes into my district and throws down the gauntlet, and all because my stand for law and order, for peace and quiet and security and the rights of the citizen, much as I opposed and am opposed to a speaking campaign for the nomination, I accept the gauntlet, and to the best of my ability will defend my cause. The Republicans everywhere say that my stand for law and order was right, but some who are supporting other candidates say that if I should be nominated the night riders would vote against me. Of course they will vote against me, but for every night-riders Republican that I lose I shall get two Democrats, law-and-order Democrats, in his place. I have no fear of the result on that score. Give me the nomination and I will take care of the night riders.

Gentlemen my stand when I went among the night riders in 1908 and denounced them to their faces at their county seats, with signs of their devilry before my eyes and the threats of their

Cavanagh, The Great Conserva- tion Novel

CHAPTER XV.

SHADOWS ON THE MIST.

THE decision which Cavanagh made between love and duty distinguished the officer from the man, the soldier from the civilian. He did not hesitate to act, and yet he suffered a mental conflict as he rode back toward the scene of that inhuman sacrifice on the altar of greed.

"It will be hours before any part of the sheriff's posse can reach the falls, even though they take to the swiftest motors, and then other long hours must intervene before I can ride down to her. At least a day and a night must drag their slow course before I can hope to be of service to her." And the thought drew a groan of anxiety from him. At such moments of mental stress the trail is a torture and the mountain side an inexorable barrier.

Halfway to the hills he was intercepted by an old man who was at work on an irrigating ditch beside the road. He seemed very nervous and very inquisitive, and as he questioned the ranger his eyes were like those of a dog that fears his master's hand. Ross wondered about this afterward, but at the moment his mind was busy with the significance of this patient talker with a spade. He was prophetic figure in the most picturesque and sterile land of the stockman. "Here, within twenty miles of this peaceful fruit grower," he said, "is the crowning infamy of the freebooting cowboy."

He wondered as he rode on whether the papers of the state would make a fit of this deed. "Will this be made a theme for caustic comment in the eastern press for a day and then be forgotten?"

As his hot blood cooled he lost faith in even this sacrifice. Could anything change the leopard west into the timeliness and serenity of the ox? "No," he decided; "nothing but death will do that. This generation, these fierce and bloody hearts, must die. Only in that way can the tradition of violence be overcome and a new state reared."

At the foot of the tollsome, upward winding trail he dismounted and led his weary horse. Over his head and about halfway to the first hilltop lay a roof of fleecy vapor, faint purple in color and seamless in texture. Through this he must pass, and it symbolized to him the line of demarcation between the plain and the mountain, between order and violence.

Slowly he led his horse along the mountain side, grasping with eager desire at every clinging aspect of the marvelous mountain scene. It was infinitely more gorgeous, more compelling, than his moonlight experience the night before.

As he led his horse out upon a projecting point of rocky ledge to rest his love for the range came back upon him with such power that tears misted his eyes and his throat ached. "Where else will I find such scenes as this?" he asked himself. "Where in all the lowlands could such splendors shine? How can I leave this high world in which these wonders come and go? I will not! Here will I bring my bride and build my home. This is my world."

But the mist grew gray, the aurore of the faded, the sun went down behind the hills, and the chill of evening descended on the trail, and as he approached the scene of man's inhumanity to man the thought of camping here beside those charred limbs called for heroic resolution. He was hungry, too, and as the air pinched he shivered.

"At the best the sheriff cannot reach here before midnight," he said, and settled down to his unsought, reviving vigil.

His one relief lay in the mental composition of a long letter to Lee Virginia, whose life at that moment was a comfort to him. "If such purity, such sweetness, can come from violence and vulgarity then surely a new and splendid state can rise even out of the ashes of these murdered men. Perhaps this is the end of the old," he mused, "perhaps this is the beginning of the new," and as he pondered the last faint crimson died out of the west. "So must the hate and violence die out of America," he said, leaving the clear, sweet air of liberty behind."

He was near to the poet at the moment, for he was also the lover. His allegiance to the great republic stood the test. His faith in democracy was shaken, but not destroyed. "I will wait," he decided. "This shall be the sign. If this deed goes unanswered then will I put off my badge and my uniform and go back to the land where for a hundred years at least such deeds as these have been impossible."

He built a fire as night fell to serve both as a beacon and as a defense against the cold. He felt himself weirdly remote in this vigil. From his far height he looked abroad upon the tumbled plain as if upon an ocean dimly perceptible, yet august. "At this moment," he said, "curious and perhaps guilty eyes are wondering what my spark of firelight may mean."

His mind went again and again to that tall old man in the ditch. What was the meaning of his scared and sorrowful glance? Why should one so peacefully employed at such a time and in such a place wear the look of

Ranger

By HAMLIN GARLAND

Copyright, 1910, by Hamlin Garland replied Cavanagh, "and he had a scared look in his eyes."

The sheriff grunted. "You imagined all that. The old chap always has a kind of meek look."

It was nearly noon of a glorious day as Cavanagh, very tired and very hungry, rode up to the sheep herder's tent. Wetherford was sitting in the sun idly smoking his pipe, the sheep were feeding not far away, attended by the dog, and an air of peace covered his sunlit rocky world.

"How is the Basque?" asked the ranger.

Wetherford pointed upward. "All over."

"Then it wasn't smallpox?"

"I reckon that's what it was; it sure was fierce. I judge it's a case of Indian burial—no ceremony—right here in the rocks. I'll let you dig the hole (I'm just about all in), but mind you keep to the windward all the time. I don't want you spotted."

Cavanagh understood the necessity for these precautions, but first of all came his own need of food and rest. Turning his tired horse to grass, he stretched himself along a grassy, sunny cranny between the rocks and there ate and afterward slept, while all about him the lambs called and the conies whined.

He was awakened by a pebble tossed upon him, and when he arose, stiff and sore, but feeling stronger and in better temper, the sun was wearing low. Setting to work at his task, he threw the loose rock out of a hollow in the ledge near by, and to this rude sepulcher Wetherford dragged the dead man, refusing all aid, and there piled a cairn of rocks above his grave.

The ranger took a hand at the end and rolled some huge bowlders upon the grave to insure the wolves' defeat. "Now burn the bedding," he commanded. "The whole camp has got to go, and your clothing, too, after we get down the bill."

"What will we do with the sheep?"

"Drive them over the divide and leave them."

All these things Wetherford did, and, leaving the camp in ashes behind him, Cavanagh drove the sheep before him on his homeward way. As night fell the dog, at his command, rounded them up and put them to bed, and the men went on down the valley, leaving the brave brute on guard, pathetic figure of faithful guardianship.

"It hurts me to desert you, old fellow," called the ranger, looking back, "but there's no help for it. I'll come up in the morning and bring you some biscuit."

It was long after dark when they entered the canyon just above the cabin, and Wetherford was shivering from cold and weakness.

"Now, you pull up just outside the gate and wait there till I bring out some blankets. Then you've got to strip to the skin and start the world all over again," said Cavanagh. "I'll build a fire here, and we'll cremate your past. How about it?"

"ALL OVER"

"I'm willing," responded Wetherford. "You can burn everything that belongs to me but my wife and my girl."

All through the ceremony which followed ran this self-banter. "I'll be all ranger, barring a commission," he said, with a grin as he put on the olive yellow shirt and a pair of dusty green trousers. "And here goes my past," he added as he tossed his contaminated rags upon the fire.

"What a corking opportunity to make a fresh start," commented Cavanagh. "I hope you see it."

"I see it, but it's hard to live up to your mark."

When every precaution had been taken the ranger led the freshly scrubbed, scoured and transformed fugitive to his cabin.

"Why, man, you're fit for the state legislature," he exclaimed as they came into the full light. "My clothes don't precisely meet every demand you make upon them, but they give you an air of command, I wish your wife could see you now." Then, seeing that Wetherford was really in earnest, he added: "You can stay with me as long as you wish. Perhaps in time you might be able to work into the service as a guard, although the chief is getting more and more insistent on real foresters."

"I passed him as I was riding back,"

There were tears in Wetherford's eyes as he said: "You cannot realize what this clean, warm uniform means to me. For nine years I wore the prison stripes. It is ten years since I was dressed like a man."

"You need not worry about food or shelter for the present," replied Cavanagh gently. "I grub is not costly here, and house rent is less than nominal, so make yourself at home and get strong."

Wetherford lifted his head. "But I want to do something. I want to redeem myself in some way. I don't want my girl to know who I am, but I'd like to win her respect. I can't be what you say she thinks I was, but if I had a chance I might show myself a man again. I wouldn't mind Lize knowing that I am alive. It might be a comfort to her. But I don't want even her to be told till I can go to her in my own duds."

"She's pretty sick," said Cavanagh. "I telephoned Lee Virginia last night, and if you wish you may ride down with me tomorrow and see her."

The old man fell a-tremble. "I dare not do that. I can't bear to tell her where I've been."

"She needn't know. I will tell her you've been out of your mind. I'll say anything you wish. You can go to her in the clothes you have on if you like. She will not recognize you as the prisoner I held the other night. You can have your beard trimmed, and not even the Justice will know you."

All reserve had vanished out of the convict's heart, and with choking voice he thanked his young host. "I'll never be a burden to you," he declared in a timer voice. "And if my lung bolts out I'll show you I've not the total loco that I fear to be."

Continued next week.

Take the Record-Press.

SHE SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Erie, Pa. — "I suffered for five years from female troubles and at last was almost helpless. I went to three doctors and they did me no good, so my sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and when I had taken only two bottles I could see a big change, so I took six bottles and I am now strong and well again. I don't know how to express my thanks for the good it has done me and I hope all suffering women will give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It was worth its weight in gold." —Mrs. J. P. ENDLICH, R. F. D. No. 7, Erie, Pa.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration. Every suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

EVANSVILLE THE HOTTEST AND RENO THE COLDEST

Freezing in Nevada and Oregon,
Snow in Montana.

Washington, D. C., May 25.—With snow falling in Montana and Oregon, a hot wave is now centered over the middle West and the south and is due in the east by Saturday. Chicago, Louisville, Omaha, Evansville, Ind., Keokuk, Ia., and Concordia, Kan., jointly held first honors in the day's heat record with 94 degrees official, while out at Reno a record of 30 degrees marked the coldest place in the United States.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors, relieves itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and itching of the private parts. Drugists, mail 50c and $1.00. Williams Mfg. Co., Prop., Cleveland, O. Sold only by J. H. Orme.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because—We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because—D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because—it cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because—it enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.

Because—the records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.

Drop into our store today, just to talk over your case with us.

J. H. Orme, Marion, Ky.

Asthma! Asthma!

POPHAM'S ASTHMA REMEDY gives instant relief and an absolute cure in all cases of Asthma, Bronchitis and Hay Fever. Sold by druggists, mail on receipt of price $1.00. Trial Package by mail 10 cents.

Williams Mfg. Co., Prop., Cleveland, Ohio. Sold only by J. H. Orme.

DYCUSBURG.

Miss Rhea Cooksey is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. L. Phillips, in Kuttawa.

Miss Emma Padon is the guest of relatives in Mullikin.

Lon Graves was in Fredonia Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miles, of Fredonia, attended Children's Day here Sunday.

P. K. Cooksey was in Paducah Sunday.

Miss Nola Parish, of Frances, attended Children's Day here Sunday.

Born to the wife of Charles Gregory a girl on May 14th.

Eugene Decker is visiting relatives in Livingston county.

Miss Ethel Rogers, of Smithland, visited her father, Robert Clifton, Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brasher, of Tilie, is the guest of her son, Charles Brasher.

Mrs. Charles Brasher is very ill.

Miss Dave Krone, of Azalea, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Oda Bennett, Sunday.

Mrs. Eugene Brown and children, of Eddyville, are the guests of Mrs. Mattie Waddington.

Dr. T. L. Phillips, of Kuttawa, was in town Sunday.

Miss Lillian Decker has been very ill for the past week.

Mrs. Mary Langston is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Stone, of Caldwell Springs.

Mrs. W. E. Charles went to Kuttawa Friday.

Gus Graves was in Louisville Thursday.

W. E. Charles returned home from Brazil, Tenn., Friday.

Mrs. P. K. Cooksey was in Kuttawa Wednesday.

—

"Our baby cries for 'Chamberlain's Cough Remedy,'" writes Mrs. T. B. Kendrick, Basaca, Ga. "It is the best cough remedy on the market for coughs, colds and croup." For sale by all dealers.

ENJOYING LIFE.

Have you found your life distasteful?

My life did and does smack sweet.

Was your youth of pleasure wasteful?

Mine I saved and held complete.

Do your joys with ago diminish?

When mine fail me I'll complain.

Must in death your daylight diminish?

My sun sets to rise again.

—Robert Browning.

WOMAN'S FRIEND

Makes Glorious Hair That Fascinates And Attracts.

Parisian Sage is not a nostrum; it is the scientific preparation of one of the world's greatest dermatologists.

It will grow hair. It will cure dandruff. It will stop falling hair. It will make the scalp clean and white and free it from any disease.

It is the most marvelous and efficient hair dressing known. It will turn harsh, lusterless and uncontrollable hair into soft, lustrous and fascinating hair in a few days. It is the favorite hair dressing of thousands of American

CROSS LANE

Misses Lena Duval and Eva Roberts of Oklahoma, are visiting relatives and friends.

Quite a number from this place went to Marion Sunday.

Mrs. Ellen Rich returned home from Evansville Saturday evening.

Miss Ruby Moore called on Miss Ida Fritts Monday.

Quite a heavy rain fell Monday night.

Granulated Eye Lids

Can be cured without cauterizing or scarring by the use of Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. We guarantee it to cure. 25 cents everywhere.

APPLEGATE

After an absence of several months, we will come to the front with a small batch of news.

On account of the continued dry weather, very little tobacco has been set out.

Quite a number from this place attended the farmers' union barbecue at Sullivan Saturday.

Gus Nunn, of this place, was appointed mail carrier over six or seven competitors on rural route No. 1, out of Sullivan, which started June 1st, and comes by here.

There will be Children's Day at Rose Bud the 4th Sunday in this month.

Misses Ina Burton and Mabel Crider have returned home from a week's visit to their aunt, Mrs. Newt Weldon, of near Crayne.

Sunday School at this place every Sunday evening. Everybody welcome.

The Best Remedy

For all kinds of sore eyes is Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. It is a creamy snow white ointment and would not injure the eyes of a babe. Guaranteed. 25 cents.

TRIBUNE

John Ligon and family, of Illinois, are visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Ligon.

Mrs. Kate Campbell and little daughter, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Minnie Travis, has returned to her home in Carrsville.

Gabe Towery and mother were guests of W. M. Towery and family Tuesday.

Mrs. Lottie Baker and Neva Wood-sides were guests of Miss Willie Pickens Sunday.

Quite a few around here went to Cave Spring to the singing school convention Sunday.

Whooping cough is very thick in this neighborhood.

Miley Bell, who has been very sick, is improving slowly.

Miss Vera Crider, of Marion, has been visiting Miss Kate McMican this week.

Miss Ruby Towery was the guest of Miss Mary Hunt Sunday.

Uncle Joe Wilson and wife spent Saturday and Sunday with Jim Pickens and family.

Howard McMican and brother, Jesse, went to Marion Saturday.

Miss Era Deboe is visiting her aunt, Lou Lamb.

Misses Elgie and Belva Towery visited their aunt, Laura Lamb, of Iron Hill, Sunday.

WILLIAMS' KIDNEY PILLS.

Have you overworked your nervous system and caused trouble with your kidneys and bladder? Have pains in loins, side, back and bladder? Have you a flabby appearance of the face and under the eyes? A frequent desire to pass urine? If so, Williams' Kidney Pills will cure you—Druggist Price 50 cents.—Williams Mfg. Co., Cleveland, Ohio. Sold only by J. H. Orme, Marion Ky.

Change of Posts

A. H. McNeely, of Princeton, who has been mail clerk messenger on the Illinois Central R. R. yesterday took a position as mail clerk in the Henderson post office, formerly held by Oleane, who took the place of McNeely on the railroad.

Henderson Gleaner.

The woman of today who has good health, good temper, good sense, bright eyes and a lovely complexion, the result of correct living and good digestion, wins the admiration of the world. If your digestion is faulty Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct it. For sale by all dealers.

Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey
For Coughs and Colds.

Makes Home Baking Easy

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only baking powder
made from Royal Grade
Cream of Tartar

NO ALUMINUM PHOSPHATE

CHAPEL HILL

Crops in this neighborhood were refreshed by a good rain Monday night.

W. H. Bigham, J. A. Hill and family were guests of E. H. Bigham and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hill and little daughter, Janna May, were guests of Mrs. Hill's mother, Mrs. Essie Clement, Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Kittie Clement has returned home from an extended visit to friends and relatives in Russellville.

The 30th of May was celebrated at Chapel Hill. It was an all-day affair. A large crowd was present, and the cemetery was cleaned off by the men and each and every grave was remembered by placing flowers thereon by the ladies. At noon a splendid dinner was served and in the afternoon new officers were elected and later services were held in the church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. J. Thompson, of Kuttawa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Adams visited her brother, Henry Wheeler, and family of View, Saturday and Sunday.

Marion Minner, son of Mrs. Josie Minner, was bitten by a snake at Chapel Hill May 30th, which caused quite an excitement. Dr. Fox, of Crayne, was immediately summoned and dressed the wound, which has so far, been getting along as well as could be expected—however he has been real sick.

The musical at J. C. Adams' the 30th was largely attended and all that were present reported a pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Haynes and little daughter, of Marion, were guests of T. M. Hill and family Saturday and Sunday.

Master Arlo Walker visited his grandfather, W. H. Bigham, and his aunt, Miss Ruby Bigham, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hill were the guests of G. B. Daugherty and family of near Dycusburg Saturday night and Sunday.

W. W. Ward and family were the guests of J. N. Hill and family, of Crayne, Saturday night and Sunday and attended church there.

25cts. Is A Small Amount

You would not suffer one day for five times that amount. Then try Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. We guarantee it to cure. It's painless and harmless.

WESTON

Mr. and Mrs. Mattingly and Mr. and Mrs. Marvel and family, of the Repton section, spent a most pleasant day Saturday on the banks of the Ohio river.

Mrs. Roy Hughes and baby have just returned from an extended visit in Cincinnati.

L. B. Cain and daughter, Nonie, were in Sturgis first of the week shopping.

Those on the sick list are Mrs. Eliza Hughes, Miss Ruby Hughes and Bob Lewis.

Miss Williams, of Providence, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Maurice Wilson and baby were pleasant callers on her mother Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Pinkney Rankin and son, Roy, of Mt. Zion, were the guests of his mother, Mrs. George Luther Rankin, Saturday evening.

Cassie Walker and wife, of Bells Mines section, visited at the home of L. B. Cain Saturday.

Reed Clark, of Fair View, is spending several days with his mother, Mrs. Nacie Clark, and will also visit friends near Freedom.

Jim Mattingly and children attended the "Emerson boat show" at Caseyville, May 31st, also Willie Gahagan and Martin Kennedy second Sunday in May.

John Swansey lost a very valuable mare the 4th Sunday and Tom Dempsey lost one also.

Mrs. Hallie Anderson Howerton, of Repton, is spending the week with her mother, Mrs. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Grady visited friends in Marion Sunday.

Ice cream for sale at C. W. Grady's every Saturday.

Miss Muriel Clark returned last Sunday from a visit to her sister, Mrs. John Fritts, on Pickern Hill.

Tom Lamb and family were here shopping Saturday.

Charley Cain has had a very serious attack of malaria, but is now convalescent.

Preaching at Green's Chapel the second Sunday. Everybody cordially invited to come and hear Bro. Hazzard proclaim the gospel.

Master Henry and Bernie Wilson were pleasant visitors of the Mattingly boys Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Mattingly and baby, of Repton, were the guests of his cousin, Jim Mattingly, Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swansey were pleasant callers at the home of Otis Hughes Sunday evening.

Dink Sturgeon and family spent the afternoon Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Avitts, of Caseyville.

Harry Stone, of Tolu, was here last week after lumber from W. T. Fowler's sawmill.

H. L. Sullivan, of Rodney, was here Tuesday after goods.

Miss Ruth King, who has been very sick, is better at this writing.

Mrs. D. H. King spent a few days in our town visiting last week.

The little yacht, "Ollie James," took a large crowd to the show at Caseyville Wednesday.

Misses Alma Heath and Emma Williams passed through here Monday on their way home from Bella Mine neighborhood.

J. L. Mattingly and daughters, Misses Ina and Nannie, attended the show at Caseyville Wednesday.

Messrs. G. D. Hughes and C. W. Grady were in Marion Thursday.

Supt., E. J. Travis, of Marion, was here Friday on school business.

There was quite a number of folks, of Fish Trap, here Friday viewing the river and scenery.

Martin Gahagan shipped a fine lot of cattle from this place Thursday.

Mrs. J. R. Collins is very sick at this writing.

A number of our farmers around here have gone to fishing instead of farming.

A large crowd of people, of Repton neighborhood, were here Friday on a picnic.

Miss Vera Bennett contemplates getting south.

L. B. Cain made a flying trip to Union county Friday.

J. R. Kennedy was in Sturgis Saturday on business.

C. C. Newcom was here Saturday trading.

C. O. Walker and family were here shopping Saturday.

Mrs. Roy Hughes and baby have just returned from an extended visit in Cincinnati.

L. B. Cain and daughter, Nonie, were in Sturgis first of the week shopping.

W. B. Rankin passed through here Saturday enroute home.

Mrs. A. H. Walker and children spent Saturday and Sunday with J. W. Hughes and family.

Mrs. M. L. Wilson visited relatives in town Saturday and Sunday.

Farmers' Union met Friday night and had a large attendance.

Johnnie Fritts and family spent Sunday with Mrs. Nacie Clark.

rest in the old Caldwell Springs cemetery.

Walter Thurman passed through this section Sunday enroute to Genn's Chapel.

Hugh Pilant returned to Sikeston, Mo., Sunday after a few days visit in this neighborhood.

Mrs. Ethel Pilant, of Sikeston, Mo., is visiting friends here.

Henry Glend and wife, of Lyon Co., called on Jim Glenn Monday.

CRAYNE.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jacobs celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday May 21st, 1911, they having been married fifty years, on that day, by inviting their children, grandchildren and friends to spend the day them. They began to assemble about eight o'clock, all bringing dinner, a nice social time was enjoyed by all present until about 11 o'clock, when dinner was served, consisting of baked and fried chicken, ham, cake, pickles, strawberries and everything to satisfy hunger. In the afternoon social talks of olden times and a general good time was enjoyed by all present. Supper was served at 4 o'clock, p. m. Their children and grandchildren present were: B. A. Jacobs, Presley Jacobs and family, of Paducah; Mrs. Grant Travis and children, of Marion; Lemon Stallions and wife, of the View section; Wm. and George Jacobs, of Kansas; being all of the children that were not present, others present were W. H. Ordway and wife, Misses J. A. Ordway, Lina Scott, Henry Paris, Walter Wigginton, W. P. Loyd and wife, W. M. O'Neal and wife, Wm. Manley and wife. Several presents were presented to the aged couple. This meeting will long be remembered by all those present May Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs live to enjoy many more such pleasant occasions is the wish of the writer.

Misses Autie and Andie Ordway, J. R. Smith and P. W. Burkalew eloped to Golconda, Ill., Sunday and were married. Misses Autie and Andie Ordway are the accomplished daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ordway, of Crayne, and are known for their beauty and lovable disposition and number their friends by the score. Mr. Smith is the son of Ben Smith, formerly of Fredonia and is employed in the grocery of E. G. Bugg, and is a worthy young man. Mr. Burkalew is a farmer of the neighborhood. May a long life and happiness attend their pathway is the wish of the writer.

For All Bowel Troubles

Use Dr. Bell's Anti-Pain. Relief is almost instantaneous. Is also good externally for all kinds of pains. Sold everywhere.

CALDWELL SPRINGS

Very little tobacco set.

Corn is not all planted.

James Brown is on the sick list.

The binders will soon begin to click.

Lila Pilant has been sick for several days.

Burt Guess, of Fredonia, was here Sunday.

Tobacco plants have grown too large to set out.

Come and bring the children to Sunday School.

The rain Monday night was thankfully received.

Mrs. Allen Williams called on Mrs. Tom Stone Monday.

A third of a crop of tobacco will not be set in this section.

Miss Elsie Riley attended church at Glenn's Chapel Sunday.

Mrs. Mildred Harper, of Calvert City, is visiting relatives here.

Frank Dybou and wife, of near Crayne, were the guests of Jim Turpin and family Sunday.

There was a good attendance at church Sunday, and Bro. Grigsby delivered a good sermon.

Allen Riley has returned home from college and will return Saturday for a week.

Rylee Jones and wife, of Sturgis, attended Children's Day at Glenn's Chapel Sunday.

Robert Guess and Miss Ethel Beck went to Marion last week and were married.

Charley Jackson returned from Louisville Saturday. Chourley says he feels like he is in pretty poor shape now and will soon be wed again.

Cyrus Moore and son, Kelley, of Flat Rock, were here Friday.

Frank Williams, of Crayne, after three days' sickness, is now back to work.

Wonder when that committee is going to meet at Free Betty Ford? Say, Mr. Yandell, why don't you get busy?

If our Fiscal court will not give us a bridge across the creek at Free Betty Ford